BULLETIN OF THE MODERN HUMANITIES RESEARCH ASSOCIATION

WITH LIST OF OFFICERS, BRANCHES, GROUPS AND MEMBERS FOR THE YEAR 1920-1

OCTOBER 1920

NO. 8

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT

WE are glad to be able to announce that Professor Otto Jespersen, Ph.D., Litt.D., of the University of Copenhagen has honoured the Association by accepting the Presidential Chair for the year 1920-1.

Few modern language scholars are better known than our new President, and perhaps no single man could have been found to whom a greater proportion of our members have reason to be profoundly grateful for his work.

Professor Jespersen is no stranger to the Association. For the last twelve months he has been one of its Vice-Presidents, and many of our members will recall with pleasure his recent visit to Cambridge, where he addressed the local Branch at Newnham College. We shall hope to see him again in London very shortly, and can assure him of a cordial welcome which shall worthily embody the feelings of our members all over the world.

TREASURER'S NOTES

The subscriptions for 1920-1 of all but life members fall due on October 1st, 1920. They may be sent, at any time after Sept. 25th, to B. W. Downs, Esq., M.A., Christ's College, Cambridge.

* *

A large number of subscriptions for 1919-20 are still outstanding. Individual notices have been sent to all members in arrears; this note is intended as a further reminder to them.

* *

The Life Subscription to the Association is at present three guineas. A motion to raise it will shortly be brought before the Committee.

* *

Last quarter a special appeal for the Capital Fund was made in the Bulletin. The Treasurer is grateful for the following sums received: Anon., £1. 17s. 0d.; W. Ivanow, Esq., 13s. 6d.; Miss B. E. Shore, 10s. Total £3. 0s. 6d.

M. H. R. A.

The appeal is renewed, and members in paying their subscriptions will no doubt remember the existence of the fund.

SECRETARY'S NOTE

Supplementary Forms are enclosed with this number. Will every member kindly fill up and return his form, the efficiency of the Association each year depending largely upon this. Where an Admission Form is enclosed the reason is that the member has returned no such form in the past. The Secretary's address is, for the present, The University, Liverpool, England.

EDITORIAL

It has been found necessary to postpone the Annual Meeting for 1920-1 till later in the year than has been our custom up to the present. A statement from the President has to be laid before the Committee, and details will be sent to members individually as soon as arrangements are made. Meanwhile we welcome a kindly reference to the Association and its work by Professor E. C. Armstrong in his Presidential Address for 1920 to the Modern Language Association of America. Professor Armstrong is one of our own members, and we hope that all will read the wise address which is printed in the Publications of our sister Association as "Taking Counsel with Candide."

The size of the Bulletin has increased with the present number (which is largely in the nature of a year-book) to twenty-four pages. The increase will be permanent and a further addition will be necessary before long. The Long Vacation naturally cuts off Branch activities and we have held over several articles and two communications read at the July General Meetings till a later number, together with the notes on Group work and Facilities for research. As the Association develops, the Bulletin must develop also. * *

We should like to say much of the Conference of British and American professors of English, which was held in London during the early part of July. The sense of comradeship was a very real one, and the results cannot fail to be far-reaching. Of one of these results we shall hope to speak in the near future.

It should be recorded here that Miss A. C. Paues gave a short account of the Association's activities and aims at the session devoted to Organisation of Research, and that British members of the M.H.R.A. had the opportunity of welcoming a number of our American visitors (most of whom were of course also our members) at the General Meeting held on the day before the Conference began.

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE, 1920

We invite the collaboration of all our members in this work and print below the first instructions which have been sent to those who have already promised to help us. The field to be covered is that of publications, from all countries, on English language and literature during the year 1920.

Collaborators in the British Isles are asked to send the Hon. Secretary the names of periodicals which they can undertake to examine: the more obscure periodicals are at present badly represented. Offers of service of other kinds are also welcomed.

Collaborators from outside the British Isles should send similar details, together with the titles of books, to the collectors whose names are given below. All Addresses will be found in the present number of the Bulletin:

Australia: Miss M. BAKER.

Canada: Prof. A. S. FERGUSON.

Czecho-Slovakia: Prof. V. MATHESIUS.

Denmark: The HON. SEC.*

France: Prof. A. KOSZUL.

Holland: Miss C. SERRURIER.

India: Prof. S. J. CRAWFORD.

Italy: The HON. SEC.*

Norway: THE HON. SEC.*

Portugal: Mr. A. F. G. BELL.

Rumania: M. BEZA.

Serbia: Prof. P. POPOVIČ.

Spain: Sr. SOLALINDE. (Catalonia: Sr. ESTELRICH.)

Sweden: Dr. ZACHRISSON.

Switzerland: Prof. G. BONNARD.

United States of America: Prof. CLARK S. NORTHUP.

* Letters will be forwarded to collectors.

Arrangements are not yet complete.

It will be seen that many countries are still unrepresented. Details concerning these should be sent to the Hon. Secretary. Collectors in unrepresented countries will be welcomed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COLLABORATORS

1. The first list of books and articles, as complete as possible, is asked for by Nov. 1, 1920. This will enable us to get forward with the bulk of the classification and ensure the early appearance of the work.

2. The second list must be in by Jan. 31, 1921. Notices received after this date cannot be inserted in the 1921 volume, though they will be published in the Bulletin, if space allows, as a supplementary list.

3. The following details should if known be given. Concerning books: Author, full title, no. of pages, size of page (in centimetres), publisher, price. Concerning articles: Author, full title, journal (name, volume, number, date), nos. of pages.

4. It will be very helpful if cards or slips of paper (5" x 3", i.e. 12.5 cm. x 7.5 cm.) are used. One notice only should be written on each. Communications sent on sheets of paper will be recopied at Headquarters.

5. Arrange data thus:

Duffin, Henry Charles.

The Quintessence of Bernard Shaw.

223 pp., 19 x 12.5, Allen and Unwin. 6/6 nett.

6. The aim of the Bibliography is to include all serious contributions to the subject. Brief mentions will generally be excluded, and articles which make no pretence at being of a scholarly nature. Where there is doubt collaborators are asked to write the notice, adding a short description of its scope by which the Editors may estimate its worth.

7. Any other concise annotations will be of value: though space this year will not permit of their publication, they will be available for reference by members wishing to consult them.

8. Work dealing with the influence of English on other languages and literatures or vice versa should be included.

9. The title of any journal which cannot be consulted but is thought worthy of examination should be sent in as soon as possible.

All notices and communications should be addressed to

E. ALLISON PEERS,

THE UNIVERSITY,

LIVERPOOL.

BOOKS RECEIVED

L'Ordene de Chevalerie: edited by Roy Temple House, Ph.D. This Old French text is edited by Dr House as part of the bi-monthly series of research pamphlets published by the University of Oklahoma. It is a poem of some five hundred lines, shewing clearly the influence of Chrétien's Perceval, and dating in all probability from very early in the thirteenth century. Dr House edits the poem with a detailed introduction, copious notes, critical apparatus and bibliography.

Historical Outlines of English Phonology and Middle English Grammar, by Samuel Moore, Associate Professor of English, University of Michigan (pp. 83). A small but useful volume intended for use in three distinct branches of the English curriculum: Chaucer, Middle English and the history of the English language. It is as full as its scope makes desirable and admirably clear; the arrangement of Old and Middle English forms and the notes on dialect commend the book particularly to the practical teacher.

The Elements of Old English, by Samuel Moore and Thomas A. Knott (pp. 209). This book, like the preceding, is published by George Wahr, Ann Arbor, Michigan, at $1.50. It has been in use at four American universities in a tentative form and now appears, after two revisions, in its final shape. Short reading-selections follow each lesson in the elementary section of the book, appended to which is a more detailed "reference grammar."

Professor Albert Schinz is about to publish with Messrs. Appleton and Co. a volume entitled French Literature of the Great War.

HELP OFFERED

Gifts of books or pamphlets are always greatly appreciated. They are handed to the appropriate Subject-Group if one exists; otherwise they are retained at Headquarters until a Group may be formed.

The Association, through its Subject-Groups and Advisory members, is always glad: (1) to put members into touch with others of similar interests; (2) to procure specialised information from libraries or elsewhere; (3) to suggest lines of research to its less experienced members; (4) to advise any wishing to learn subsidiary languages for purposes of later research; (5) to arrange for the copying of passages from books, manuscripts, etc. at moderate terms.

The Secretary has (1) particulars of published and unpublished theses in British University Libraries; (2) catalogues of dealers in rare and foreign books; (3) particulars of research facilities in Chapter House, Cathedral and private libraries; (4) a list of members, and other persons, who undertake reading and copying at the British Museum and other libraries.

Any member wishing to do so may insert a notice offering or asking for help in one or more numbers of the Bulletin.

HELP WANTED

General

It is particularly asked that all who can will from time to time help the Association in the following ways: (1) By suggesting suitable subjects for research in various fields (no such list of subjects will be published except with the permission of the person suggesting them). (2) By suggesting subjects for collective work: all communications, preferably in duplicate, will be considered by experts, filed, and, if adopted, published in the Bulletin. (3) By offering their services in the collection of any kind of information likely to be of service to the Association. (4) By co-operating with the organisers of Subject-Groups.

MISCELLANEOUS QUERIES

Members engaged in work on the following subjects have asked to be put into touch with others working upon them. Application should be made to the Hon. Secretary.

- (C 01581) The dramas: Cain and Abel, and The Annunciation.

MODERN HUMANITIES RESEARCH ASSOCIATION,

1920-I

This Association was founded at Cambridge on June 1st, 1918, and after two years' work now numbers 600 members. Its main object is the encouragement of advanced study in Modern Languages and Literatures by co-operation, through correspondence, personal intercourse, the interchange of information and counsel, and financial support for students engaged in research. The Association aims at improving and facilitating means and methods, and seeks such a co-ordination of isolated effort that those interested or engaged in the same branch of research shall be kept informed of each other's work, and that unnecessary duplication of energy shall be avoided.

Persons duly qualified for membership of the Association may become:—

1. Ordinary members, if actually engaged in or contemplating research.
2. Associate members, if in sympathy with the aims of the Association, but not personally engaged in research.

Local Correspondents are desired for all localities where membership is likely to increase. Centres numbering more than twenty members may form Local Branches, each Branch having the right to appoint one member to sit on the General Committee. Members engaged in similar studies may form Subject-Groups for the furtherance of the Association's aims. A number of these are already at work and the formation of others is contemplated.

The Association principally needs Workers, and for the consideration of those of its members who are anxious to forward its activities, a note of some directions in which they may be useful is appended:

1. If your district is unrepresented on the list of Correspondents, you can represent it, and by bringing the Association to the notice of scholars, writers, teachers and editors of journals, help towards the foundation of a Branch.

2. You can possibly assist in the formation of a Group, by organising it, by undertaking secretarial work, or by collecting those of similar interests to your own and getting into touch with others.

3. You can certainly bring the Association to the notice of your friends in whatever part of the world you live.

4. Can you also help in the Bibliographical project of which the first part is to be carried out this year? (See pp. 3-4.)

5. It is not improbable, too, that you can collect some of the information which is welcomed at Headquarters (see sections "Help Offered" and "Help Wanted" in every number of the Bulletin).

6. Lastly, we ask our members to use what influence they may have in enabling us to undertake the more ambitious part of our programme. (See Prospectus.)
